

Curious Cats and Incredible Kid Watching Reflection Sheet

1. On the back of this page or on another sheet of paper, list the names of all the children in your setting (classroom , child care home) and the names of the adults you work with.
2. Who was easy to think of and who did you have difficulty remembering? Why were some easier to remember than others? Are there any children or adults who you need to pay closer attention to?
3. For the children and adults listed, name one thing each is curious about and how you know they are interested in it.

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION

4. What play themes arise in your setting and why?
5. Think of five specific examples of children's behavior and/or conversations that stick out to you. What do these behaviors and conversations reveal about the children's interests, strengths and needs?
6. What have you seen teachers/providers do to support and deepen the learning?
