Responding to Challenging Behavior: The ABCs of Positive Guidance

October 9, 2010

9:00am—12:00pm

Weld County Training Center

1104 H Street

Presenter: Terri Emberling

Virtually everyone who works with young children encounter challenging behaviors! In this workshop you will learn a simple-to-follow, but very powerful approach for responding to challenging behavior in a way that actually feels good to adults and children alike, while building skills in children.

Terri Emberling is the founder and director of Relationship Roots, Inc., a therapeutic preschool program for children expelled from preschool programs for their challenging behaviors. She now focuses on sharing expertise she developed during this time through her trainings and workshops. Terri has a Master's of Counseling Psychology and is a Licensed Professional Counselor.

Todos los talleres seran traducidos en espanol. Cuando usted se registre, por favor indique que necesitara traduccion. (All training workshops will be translated into Spanish. When you RSVP, please indicate if translation will be needed.)

Register now!

Although the training is free, registration is required! Please contact Vanessa Blair 970-304-6188, vblair@unitedway-weld.org Thank you!
