

© 2003, Butterfly Park Educational Materials, Inc.

© 2003, Butterfly Park Educational Materials, Inc.

© 2003, Butterfly Park Educational Materials, Inc.

© 2003, Butterfly Park Educational Materials, Inc.

S

23

This is Mother Snake in the shape of S. Mother snake slithers out from behind a rock. “sss,” she hisses as she calls to her babies. “It’s sss-safe.” Five little snakes slither out from behind the rock hissing, “sss.”

www.AlphabetWorkout.com

m

33

This is Miss Butterfly in the shape of M. Miss Caterpillar turned into a butterfly while she slept! She crawls out of her chrysalis and dries off her wings. She flies to the nearest flower. “mmm,” she hums. “mmm! How delicious!” (Say m without opening your mouth. Not “ma” or “muh”.)

www.AlphabetWorkout.com

t

11

This is Maria in the shape of T. She is pretending to be a twirling helicopter. She stretches out her arms and spins around. “t, t, t,” Maria sings to make the sound of the twirling blades. (Not “ta” or “tuh”.)

www.AlphabetWorkout.com

a

9

This is Oliver Owl in the shape of A. He is at the vet’s. Something is caught in his throat. “Open your beak and say ā,” says the vet. Oliver says, “ā.” (as in “at”)

www.AlphabetWorkout.com